

SPEAKER'S BIO

STEVEN IAPICCO

COMMISSIONER
FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE

Commissioner Steven Iapicco serves as a mediator in the East Central Florida area for Southeast District of FMCS. As a Federal mediator, Commissioner Iapicco acts as a confidential neutral working toward amicable contract settlements primarily between management and labor where he is responsible for mediating disputes involving collective bargaining, grievances filed by employees covered by collective bargaining agreements, as well as employment discrimination cases in the equal employment opportunity arena for multiple federal sector agencies. In addition to mediation, Commissioner Iapicco provides training in the arena of preventive mediation, providing training, assessment, coaching, and facilitation skills that will achieve enhanced work relationships.

He also served as an FMCS field mediator in the Atlanta, GA Field Office and the Miami Lakes, FL Field Office location before transferring again to Merritt Island, FL. While in Georgia he developed many relationships with both labor and management and supported the Georgia Labor Management Conference (GLMC). In Miami he once again developed relationships with both management and union representatives and has remained active in the Florida Labor Management Conference (FLMC). He also is active in the Kennedy Labor Management Relations Council (KLMRC).

Commissioner Iapicco's experience, prior to receiving his FMCS appointment, includes over 13 years in labor and employee relations, contract negotiations, arbitrations, as well as training of management staff, while he administered multiple labor contracts.

Mr. Iapicco completed his formal education at the University of Central Florida with a BS in Business. His MA is from Webster University with a dual degree in Management and Human Resources Management.
